Box I Observations where certain claims were found unsearchable (Continuation of item 1 of first sheet)

This international report has not been established in respect of certain claims under Article 17(2)(a) for the following reasons:

1. ☐ Claims Nos.:
because they relate to subject matter not required to be searched by this Authority, namely:

2. ☒ Claims Nos.: 64 and 65
because they relate to parts of the international application that do not comply with the prescribed requirements to such an extent that no meaningful international search can be carried out, specifically:

these claims do not clearly define the matter for which protection is sought

3. ☐ Claims Nos.:
because they are dependent claims and are not drafted in accordance with the second and third sentences of Rule 6.4(a).

Box II Observations where unity of invention is lacking (Continuation of item 2 of first sheet)

This International Searching Authority found multiple inventions in this international application, as follows:

Please See Extra Sheet.

1. ☐ As all required additional search fees were timely paid by the applicant, this international search report covers all searchable claims.
2. ☐ As all searchable claims could be searched without effort justifying an additional fee, this Authority did not invite payment of any additional fee.
3. ☐ As only some of the required additional search fees were timely paid by the applicant, this international search report covers only those claims for which fees were paid, specifically claims Nos.:

4. ☒ No required additional search fees were timely paid by the applicant. Consequently, this international search report is restricted to the invention first mentioned in the claims; it is covered by claims Nos.:

1-5

Remark on Protest

- ☐ The additional search fees were accompanied by the applicant's protest.
☐ No protest accompanied the payment of additional search fees.

Box III TEXT OF THE ABSTRACT (Continuation of item 5 of the first sheet)

The technical features mentioned in the abstract do not include a reference sign between parentheses (PCT Rule 8.1(d)).

NEW ABSTRACT

Improved orthodontic methods and apparatus are described that reduce the level of skill required for successful treatment, reduce the amount of orthodontist's time required for successful treatment, and have improved retention. Customized individual orthodontic treatment is possible utilizing brackets (92420), bands and archwires (1200) specifically designed for each malocclusion. Computer software is used to organize hundreds of issues and appliance variations in an automated or semi-automated diagnosis and treatment system. Related tools include a bracket holder (500) having a handle (550), a pair of gripping members (520,520') and a gripping member position and orientation indicator (600) and a bracket vertical position indicator (700).

BOX II. OBSERVATIONS WHERE UNITY OF INVENTION WAS LACKING

This ISA found multiple inventions as follows:

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1. In order for all inventions to be searched, the appropriate additional search fees must be paid.

Group I, claim(s) 1-5, drawn to a computer assisted orthodontic treatment method.

Group II, claim(s) 6-22, drawn to an orthodontic bracket holder and method of use.

Group III, claim(s) 23 and 24, drawn to a method of coupling a plurality of brackets to a plurality of teeth.

Group IV, claim(s) 25-29, drawn to a method of selecting an archwire.

Group V, claim(s) 30, drawn to an archwire selection aid.

Group VI, claim(s) 31-39, drawn to an automated system for selecting an archwire.

Group VII, claim(s) 40, drawn to an automated system for ordering an archwire.

Group VIII, claim(s) 41-50, drawn to an adaptive orthodontic treatment method.

Group IX, claim(s) 51-58, drawn to an orthodontic bracket.

Group X, claim(s) 59 and 60, drawn to an orthodontic treatment method using overcorrection.

Group XI, claim(s) 61-63, drawn to a bracket assembly.

The inventions listed as Groups I-XI do not relate to a single inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

Group I, the special technical feature is the use of a computer system to reposition a tooth.

Group II, the special technical feature is a bracket holder with a gripping member position and orientation indicator.

Group III, the special technical feature is using a plurality of bracket holders to attach a plurality of brackets to a plurality of teeth.

Group IV, the special technical feature is selecting an archwire based upon a representation of the patient's inner arch curve.

Group V, the special technical feature is an archwire selection aid bearing one or more representations of archwires.

Group VI, the special technical feature is an automated system including a recorder for obtaining a patient internal arch curve.

Group VII, the special technical feature is an automated ordering system.

Group VIII, the special technical feature is an orthodontic treatment in which the original treatment plan is subsequently modified.

Group IX, the special technical feature is an orthodontic bracket having a visual indicator.

Group X, the special technical feature is an orthodontic treatment method wherein the tooth orientation is overcorrected.

Group XI, the special technical feature is a bracket assembly having an archwire slot modifying member.
